

national association
for hospice at home

Keynote Speaker Biography

Session Details

Date	Thursday 1 October 2015
Time	2:00 – 2:45pm
Title	Choice agenda – blockers and enablers in EOLC

Claire Henry, MBE RGN Postgraduate Diploma BSc (Hons)
Chief Executive, The National Council for Palliative Care & Dying Matters

Claire is the Chief Executive of The National Council for Palliative Care & Dying Matters.

Prior to this role, Claire was Head of Programmes for Long Term Conditions and End of Life Care at NHS Improving Quality.

Previous roles have included National Director for the NHS End of Life Care Programme supporting SHA/PCTs and other organisations to improve the quality of care for all adult patients nearing the end of life. She had a number of roles within the Cancer Services Collaborative 'Improvement Partnership' (CSC 'IP') supporting cancer networks in the implementation of service redesign for cancer services.

Claire's background is in nursing. She trained at South Lincolnshire School of Nursing. After qualifying Claire worked predominately in cancer and palliative care.

NAHH Annual Conference 2015

The choice to die at home – a reality or an aspiration? Does hospice at home hold the key?

Thursday 1st – Friday 2nd October 2015

The Met Hotel, Leeds