Title	Supporting Carers: a Strategy for the Future - Princess Alice Hospice

Rebecca Trower

Head of Quality and Patient Experience, Princess Alice Hospice

Rebecca has been the Head of Quality and Patient Experience at Princess Alice Hospice in Esher since 2014.

With over 25 years' experience of working in specialist palliative care, Rebecca is a nurse by background and has worked in a variety of settings including the acute and independent sectors as well as the community.

Her current role involves working cross-departmentally with clinical and non-clinical staff as well as patients and families, focusing on service improvement. She is Caldicott guardian for the organisation and works as a specialist advisor in end of life care for the Care Quality Commission in her spare time.
