Elise Hoadley

Hospice Director, Sue Ryder Leckhampton Court Hospice

Elise qualified as a Registered Nurse in 1982, as a Midwife in 1986 and then began her career in specialist palliative care in 1998, as a staff nurse in a Sue Ryder Hospice.

On completion of her Palliative Care degree at Oxford Brookes University she worked as a Hospital Palliative Care Clinical Nurse Specialist and Team

Leader in the NHS. In 2008 she spoke in Japan at the Tokyo International Cancer Conference, on the role of the Clinical Nurse Specialist.

Elise has held senior managerial roles in Sue Ryder Hospices in Henley-on-Thames and Reading, before coming to Sue Ryder Leckhampton Court Hospice as Director in 2013.

In 2014 she instigated the redesign of an existing Hospice at Home Service from Leckhampton Court and is pleased to have launched this service in 2015.

Elise enjoys travelling to Brazil to visit her son and grandchildren and she is a Trustee of a charity which supports an orphanage in Tanzania.
