

Programme

Thursday 31 October 2019

Time	Session	Speaker
8:30am	Registration opens & refreshments available
9am	Welcome and setting the scene	Nigel Hartley, CEO Mountbatten Group
9:30am	Guest speaker	Adam Kay, author, comedian, former doctor
10am	Refreshments and an opportunity to view exhibitors
10:30am	The inaugural Frances Sheldon keynote address Key challenges for hospice care and why psychosocial care matters	Dame Barbara Monroe
11:30am	Keynote address	Tracey Bleakley, CEO Hospice UK
12:15pm	Round-table discussion A chance to explore key themes raised during the morning session	Nigel Hartley Dame Barbara Monroe Tracey Bleakley
1pm	Lunch and an opportunity to view exhibitors
1:45pm	Workshop 1 Care coordination and planning services to cater for growing demand. Duncan Fleming, Head of Quality Mountbatten Group and Bev Behmer, Head of Community Services at Mountbatten Isle of Wight	Workshop 2 How successful are hospices in working in partnership with others? Becky McGregor, General Manager Countess Mountbatten Hospice, Southampton, Jane Hazeldine, Director of Psychosocial Care, Mountbatten Group	Workshop 3 The language of death and dying Emma Topping, Head of Communications and Matt White, Communications Manager, Mountbatten Group
2:45pm	Refreshments and an opportunity to view exhibitors
3pm	Another opportunity to take part in one of our workshops (see above)
4pm	Questions & close
5pm	Drinks reception, performance by the Mountbatten Community Choir

Programme

Friday 1 November 2019

Time	Session	Speaker
8:30am	Registration opens & refreshments available
9am	Welcome and setting the scene	Nigel Hartley, CEO Mountbatten Group
9:45am	Keynote address Equipping a community by thinking differently about volunteers	Dr Barbara Gale MBE, CEO St Nicholas Hospice Care
10:15am	Refreshments and an opportunity to view exhibitors
10:45am	Keynote address Death, dying and bereavement are everyone's business – developing the confidence to welcome death as a friend	Nigel Hartley, CEO Mountbatten Group
11:15am	Round-table discussion A chance to explore key themes raised during the morning session	Nigel Hartley Dr Barbara Gale MBE
12:15pm	Lunch and an opportunity to view exhibitors
1:15pm	Keynote address Project Echo and making it work	Dr Sam Kyeremateng, Medical Director St Luke's Hospice
2pm	Workshop 1 Project Echo Duncan Fleming, Head of Quality Mountbatten Group and Dr Sam Kyeremateng	Workshop 2 The Archive of Memory - creative writing workshop Lani O' Hanlon, dance artist, award-winning poet and writer, Waterford Healing Arts Trust	Workshop 3 The future of volunteering Sally List, Clinical Lead for patient-facing volunteers and project lead for Mountbatten Neighbours
3:30pm	Refreshments and an opportunity to view exhibitors
3:45pm	Closing remarks	Nigel Hartley, CEO Mountbatten Group
4:45pm	Questions & close

CARE FOR A REVOLUTION?